Dear Carry

It was so good to see you once more even though it was for just two hours. I'll be leaving for Baghdad tomorrow after having six weeks of a splendid holiday this last week has been most exciting, eventful & full of surprises. I can't help but feel most deeply with all these happenings. I pray that all will be well & that we have another chance to meet on a more [illegible] & God's blessings

P.S. [illegible] send Easter & Regards.
